KMC VOX Editorial

We, editorial team, feel pleased to come up with this souvenir KMC VOX IV, Issue I. We believe in student-centered pedagogy that enables students to evolve holistically. The students and faculties belonging to Bachelor and Master Levels have made their persistent endeavor to bring about this memento. We would like to appreciate highly to the contribution of all the students and the faculty members who have helped us in publishing this souvenir. At the same time, we appreciate your creative and constructive feedbacks. Furthermore, we also encourage everyone to contribute articles in the future publications too.

The college has emerged as a premier college imparting management and social science education to its students over the decades keeping into account the ethos of globalized education. We hope that diverse activities of the college will contribute to further enrich its pivotal role in the nation building.

What is heartening to note that college has been able to make its monumental presence in the nation since its foundation!! The college has been able to provide quality education and pragmatic experience to thousands of students. It is a matter of great satisfaction that the students graduated from the college, have shaped up their career in various fields nationally and internationally.

KMC has been one of the leading institutes for both academic and professional excellence. As a part of the developmental needs of our country, it is imperative that we should expand our research horizons and strengthen our self-reliance on global market. In order to help the community reach its maximum potential and further leverage this strength of ours, it will be of tremendous use to have a healthy discussion around current status of research, its opportunities and challenges, and strategy for future which will pave the way for the progress of the nation as a whole.

The KMC management and editorial team does not bear any responsibility of originality of the opinion articles compiled, edited and published into this book form. The individual contributors are solely liable for their writings.

Hope to have support and cooperation in coming days too.
